

So much fun at Forest School! The children painted large Gruffalo images using chalks and paint brushes! We are all getting so much more confident at the “Ups and Downs,” challenging ourselves and showing resilience!

So much of the learning that takes place at Preschool happens naturally through purposeful play opportunities including aspects of self care. This week, however, we offered a focus on oral health to support brushing teeth at home!

