

We love starting Forest school with a story.

Painting outside on cellophane was great fun as was our scavenger hunt. The most exciting finds were wriggly worms and feathers.

We ate our snack on a bench on the football field

You might hear our singing!